

Prepared by Madeline Dorr (Former student of STAT 6197 Class, GW)

1. Install Github Desktop
 - a. Instructions
 - i. <https://help.github.com/en/desktop/getting-started-with-githubdesktop/installing-github-desktop>
 - b. Download link
 - i. <https://desktop.github.com/>
2. Clone the repository (i.e. SASCourse)
 - a. Open Github Desktop and make sure you are logged in
 - b. Go to File → Clone Repository

- c. Highlight the appropriate repository (i.e. SASCourse), double check the local pathway, and hit the button to clone it

Clone a repository

GitHub.com

GitHub Enterprise Server

URL

Filter your repositories

Your repositories

mid21/hello-world

Local path

C:\Users\Maddy\Documents\GitHub\hello-world

Choose...

Clone

Cancel

- i. Now the files will be downloaded to your computer and saved to where the local path specified